

White Duranta

Duranta erecta 'Alba'

The Cockrell Butterfly Center's selection of an outstanding white version of this fabulous long blooming root hardy shrub. This version also is a more compact grower averaging 4'-6'. Forms a large, full "shrub" & is covered with tight clusters of milky white flowers in heavy cycles late spring thru fall. It also produces dangling clusters of yellow berries. Prefers full sun but will take light shade. Butterflies!